2008-09 SUPPLEMENTARY BUDGET ESTIMATES HEARING

Outcome: 5

DEEWR Question No. EW770_09

Senator Hanson-Young provided this question in writing following Senate Estimates hearings on Wednesday 22 October 2008. This is one of three written questions seeking further information about the recently established Australian Government Office for Youth.

Question

Office for Youth – Health and education/training programs for young Australians

What is the Government planning to do to ensure all is being done in implementing health and education/training programs for young Australians?

Answer

The Government has established the Office for Youth (the Office) within the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations. This Office will help ensure a coordinated cross-department approach to the Government's youth affairs agenda, including health and education/training programs for young Australians.
