DEEWR Question No. EW 771

Senator Hanson-Young provided this question in writing following Senate Estimates hearings on Wednesday 22 October 2008. This is one of three written questions seeking further information about the recently established Australian Government Office for Youth.

Question

Office for Youth – State of Australia’s Young People report

I note that a State of Australia's Young People report is due to be prepared in the next 12 months - when will the consultation process for this begin? And in what form?’

Answer

The Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations has provided the following response:

The project plan for the State of Australia’s Young people report, including any required consultation, is currently being developed.
