Senator PAYNE asked on 22 October, DEEWR Hansard page 105.

Question

Filming of Maxine McKew at the Jenny Wren Child Care Centre

What are the production costs of the video appearing on the department's website featuring the parliamentary secretary and a child care centre? What funding pool did this come from? Is the video to be used anywhere other than the internet? Is it intended to be placed on television or any other medium?

Answer

The production costs for the video outlining the Government's policies in Early education and childhood were $1,575.00.

The funding was sourced from the Child Care Services Support Program allocation.

The video is hosted on the Parliamentary Secretary's website, with a link from the Office of Early Childhood Education and Child Care website. It is not intended for television.
