Question

Comcare Review

That [the report of the review of Comcare] was delivered to the Minister in August. Is there any expected time line as when that is going to be available as in having been published or will there be an announcement in due course? If so, when will that be as to what the government proposes to do about this?

Answer

The Deputy Prime Minister is currently considering the report. The timing and nature of any announcements is yet to be determined.
