Hansard Page/Written Question on Notice: Written

SENATOR COONAN asked on 22/02/2008:

What are the skills derived from employees in the Office of the Access Card that were retained or transferred?

Answer:

Staff have built up significant expertise in several important areas that extend beyond the development of a consolidated Access Card including:

- program management;
- architecture design;
- international technology standards;
- interoperability and data standards;
- business process modelling and development;
- proof of identity;
- financial services industry technology capabilities;
- business intelligence; and
- tender processes.
