Additional Estimates 13-16 Feb 2012

Prime Minister and Cabinet Portfolio

- On 30 April 2009, Senator the Hon John Faulkner, the then Cabinet Secretary, wrote to the Secretary of the department (and to the heads of key agencies subject to the FOI Act), outlining the government's FOI reform objectives and asking that it be made clear to FOI decision makers that the starting point for considering FOI requests should be a presumption in favour of giving access to documents.
 - On 28 October 2010, the Hon Brendan O'Connor MP, the then Minister for Privacy and Freedom of Information, wrote to the Secretary of the department and to the heads of key agencies subject to the FOI Act to update them on progress of the reforms to freedom of information laws and seek their assistance in implementing the reforms. Mr O'Connor indicated that he would be grateful if secretaries and agency heads take a lead role in ensuring the effective and workable implementation of the Government's pro-disclosure policy and associated reforms.
 - The department takes into account guidelines to all agencies on the operation of the FOI Act, issued by the department prior to 1 November 2010 or issued subsequently by the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC).
 - Since 28 July 2011, decision-makers in the department have had reference (where relevant) to the FOI Guidance Notes issued by the department on that date – http://www.dpmc.gov.au/foi/guidance_notes.cfm.
2. This information is reported in the Freedom of Information Act 1982 Annual Reports for 2009-10 and 2010-11.
 3. The department reports to the OAIC on costs to process FOI requests on an annual basis. Data on total costs for this financial year to date are not readily available. The department considers it would be an unreasonable diversion of resources to compile the data to answer this question. Total costs for 2011-12 will be made available in the Freedom of Information Act 1982 Annual Report for 2011-12.
 4. For the first four parts of this question, this information is reported in the Freedom of Information Act 1982 Annual Reports for 2009-10 and 2010-11.
For the fifth question, yes, some of these requests remain outstanding.

5. In the period 1 July 2011 to 31 December 2011:
- The department received 113 FOI requests.
 - Of the 123 finalised requests, 20 were granted in full, 15 were granted in part, 32 were refused* and the remaining 56 were transferred or withdrawn.
 - The department did not meet processing times for 37 requests.
 - For the fifth question, yes, some of these requests remain outstanding.
- * The department notes that requests “refused” include requests where no relevant documents are found to be in the department’s possession.
6. Nil; as indicated in answer to Senator Ryan’s question on notice number 134 from the October 2011 Supplementary Budget Estimates, the power to issue conclusive certificates under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 was abolished on 7 October 2009.
