ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS ON NOTICE
ADDITIONAL ESTIMATES 2012-2013

Finance and Deregulation Portfolio

Department/Agency: Australian Electoral Commission

Outcome/Program:

Topic: Industrial Elections

Senator: Ryan

Question reference numbers: F43

Type of question: Hansard F&PA Committee, Page 83, 12 February 2013

Date set by the committee for the return of answer: Tuesday, 2 April 2013

Number of pages: 29

Question :

Could I ask you to take a couple of questions on notice before I move to our favourite topic. Could you take on notice the cost of ballots provided to registered industrial organisations separately for their annual elections and protected-action ballots. I know I have asked for those for a number of years. I know you cannot disaggregate within registered organisations, but for the current financial year and the years in the budget estimates would be much appreciated.

Answer:

Industrial Elections: The AEC is not able to provide a total of all costs related to industrial elections. The AEC does record direct costs associated with the conduct of these elections, and estimates are shown in the table below. Direct costs cover expenditure for such components as temporary staffing hours, printing, postage, and mailing house costs. A breakdown of direct costs is shown at Attachment A.

The other cost component of industrial elections is ongoing staffing hours, for which the AEC receives an appropriation in its annual budget allocation. Staff hours are not recorded for industrial elections, which are often conducted over an extended period of time. Staff appointed as Returning Officers could either have multiple industrial elections running concurrently with differing timeframes, or could be conducting an industrial election together with a range of divisional office duties.

Protected Action Ballots: The AEC invoices the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations for costs incurred by the AEC in the conduct of protected action ballots. Cost estimates for the current financial year and the years in the budget estimates are provided in the table below. Details of individual ballots are shown at Attachment B.
