Question:

1. How much was spent by each department and agency on the government (Ministers/Parliamentary Secretaries) stationery requirements in your portfolio (i.e. paper, envelopes, with compliments slips) this financial year to date?
2. What are the department/agency's stationery costs for the financial year to date?

Answer:

1. Letters for Portfolio Ministers and Parliamentary Secretaries are usually printed on plain paper with the 'letterhead' being part of the electronic document.

The following Ministers use 'Stephen Swiss White' 115gsm A4 paper and matching DL envelopes for ministerial correspondence:

- the Prime Minister, the Honourable Julia Gillard MP,
- the Parliamentary Secretary to the Prime Minister, Senator the Honourable Jan McLucas.

The cost of the Stephen Swiss White paper and envelopes are approximately:

- one ream of paper (500 sheets) is $41.87; and
- DL envelopes are $76.50 per box of 500.

Standard white paper (A4 80gsm) and department standard white envelopes are used for ministerial correspondence for the other Ministers in the Portfolio (as at 28 February 2013), i.e.:

- the Minister Assisting the Prime Minister on Digital Productivity, Senator the Honourable Stephen Conroy

Occasionally the Department may purchase additional stationery. The total cost for stationery used by each Minister in the financial year to date cannot be identified as stationery is ordered in bulk, sometimes for several Ministers, and then used over an extended period. The costs have therefore been presented as an amount per ream or batch of stationery.

2. The Department has spent $263,465 on stationery in the period between 1 July 2012 and 28 February 2013.
