

SCRIPT UP UNTIL BUDGET NIGHT

Job Network Rapid Connection

Script for CSOs

Have you heard about Job Network?

It is a network of private and community organisations, funded by the Australian Government, dedicated to helping you find and keep a job.

Did you know the Job Network have got a great range of programs that can help you find a job?

When you first register with Job Network they will give you advice on the range of ways to look for work, career options, help and advice on writing a resumes and job applications. They will also show you how to use the Job Search website and how to use the auto-job matching services.

What if you need more help?

Many people find that this is all the help they need but if you are still looking for work after three months, Job Network can offer a wider range of services including help with work related costs such as fares to attend interviews.

Is it compulsory?

Not if you are on a Parenting Payment or Disability Support Pension but did you know that most people are better off working, and depending on how much you earn you can still keep many of your benefits.

Outline relevant income cut-off levels and if appropriate run the Centrelink Rate Estimator.

Now, we will just get some basic details to send across to them as an introduction for you, and then we can get a good appointment time in the next couple of days.

SCRIPT FOR EVERY CONTACT EVERY TIME IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING BUDGET

Job Network Rapid Connection

Script for CSOs

Have you heard about Job Network?

It is a network of private and community organisations, funded by the Australian Government, dedicated to helping you find and keep a job.

Did you know the Job Network have got a great range of programs that can help you find a job?

When you first register with Job Network they will give you advice on the range of ways to look for work, career options, help and advice on writing a resumes and job applications. They will also show you how to use the Job Search website and how to use the auto-job matching services.

What if you need more help?

Many people find that this is all the help they need but if you are still looking for work after three months, Job Network can offer a wider range of services including help with work related costs such as fares to attend interviews.

Is it compulsory?

Not if you are on a Parenting Payment or Disability Support Pension but did you know that most people are better off working, and depending on how much you earn you can still keep many of your benefits.

The Government has just announced changes to requirements for Parenting Payment and Disability Support Pension customers, however these will not come into effect until July 2006.

(Staff are able to go get more information from the Budget homepage on Centrenet - <http://centrenet/homepage/budget/index.htm>)

Outline relevant income cut-off levels and if appropriate run the Centrelink Rate Estimator.

Now, we will just get some basic details to send across to them as an introduction for you, and then we can get a good appointment time in the next couple of days.

NEW OUTBOUND SCRIPT, EFFECTIVE 23 MAY

	Greeting "Hello, my name is  and I'm calling from Centrelink to discuss the Job Network. Job Network is a service we can offer to eligible customers, such as yourself. Do you mind if I start by asking you a few questions to confirm your identity?" Conduct POI check. Service Offer Have you heard about Job Network? It is a network of private and community organisations, funded by the Australian Government, dedicated to helping you find and keep a part-time, full-time or casual job, depending on your personal circumstances and needs. People who are already working can get assistance from the Job Network in finding full time work.. Job Network can also assist with finding part time or casual employment with increased hours. Did you know the Job Network have got a great range of programs that can help you find a job? When you first register with Job Network they will give you advice on the range of ways to look for work, career options, help and advice on writing a resume and job applications. They will also show you how to use the Job Search website and how to use the auto-job matching services. Once your resume is completed on the system you will also receive notification of any jobs available in your area that match your skills by SMS, email or by ringing a toll free number. What if you need more help? Many people find that this is all the help they need but if you are still looking for work after three months, Job Network can offer a wider range of services including help with work related costs such as fares to attend interviews.
--	---

Is it compulsory?

No, as you are in receipt of Parenting Payment, participation is voluntary, but did you know that most people are better off working, and depending on how much you earn you can still keep many of your benefits.

The Government has just announced changes to requirements and services for Parenting Payment and Disability Support customers, however these will not come into effect until July 2006.

(Staff are able to get more information from the Budget homepage on Centrenet - <http://centrenet/homepage/budget/index.htm>)

Outline relevant income cut-off levels, providing an explanation of Working Credits and how these can offset the initial effect of earnings on payments. If appropriate run the Centrelink Rate Estimator to provide an example.

Refer to the Rapid Connection Q&A page for further information to respond to questions the customer might have.

<http://centrenet/homepage/aso/callcntr/natinfo/ems/ptjnqas.htm>

Now, we will just get some basic details to send across to them as an introduction for you, and then we can get a good appointment time in the next couple of days."

If customer wants to be registered, go to Step 9

If customer declines to be registered, go to Step 8