Senator Forshaw asked: When were the answers to questions that had been taken on notice finalised and what happened to them when they were sent through to the Secretariat, and if they were sent to the minister and if that is where the hold up was.

Answer:

The 19 questions that were taken on notice on 7 October 2005 were finalised by the department on 4 November 2005 and sent to the Prime Minister's office for clearance which was received on 29 November 2005. The answers were lodged with the Committee secretariat on the same day.
