Question:

Has there been any movement in time frames and costings on government ICT projects in this year's budget? If so, which ones?

Answer:

The measures in the 2012-13 Budget did not contain any movement in time frames or costings on government ICT projects. Of the 34 ICT projects funded through the Budget measures, 33 were new projects and one, the National e-Health Program – continuation measure, received funding for the next phase in its rollout.
