Senator FAULKNER: Is anyone using the self-serve computer—or whatever it is called? That is my non-technical description of it.

Ms Graham: The self-service technology has had a very good take-up.

Senator FAULKNER: Really?

Ms Graham: I do not have exact numbers with me, but I have got numbers available if you would like that to be provided on notice.

Senator FAULKNER: That would be useful because it has mainly been turned off.

Answer

Since February 2012, 8,622 orders have been placed using the self-service technology in the Staff Dining Room. This represents 14% of the total orders in that time.
