Question:

Are you aware of any concerns that have been raised in relation to the state in which items are being received in some electorate offices, in terms of broken boxes and paper that arrives that is not able to be used in printers or photocopiers because of the state in which it arrives?

Answer:

Where an office has concerns in relation to the state in which some goods are received, and subsequently raises those concerns with Ministerial and Parliamentary Services, they are dealt with on an individual basis directly with the contracted service provider.
