Question: PM37

Outcome 1, Output 2.2

Topic: Capacity Building Workshops

Direct on Notice

Senator Crossin asked: In relation to the capacity building workshops conducted by the Office of the Status of Women for women's NGOs, which groups participated in these workshops/how many people participated in these workshops/when and where were they held.

Answer: It is estimated that in 2001-02 OSW capacity building workshops reached approximately 480 women. The two types of workshops were:

- Capacity Building workshops, which included strategic planning.
- Getting Your Message Heard, which covered lobbying, working with the media and influencing change.

Details of where and when these workshops were held, the number of attendees and the groups which participated are listed in the following table:
