Topic: Historic Memorials Committee's charter and terms of reference

Question P8, Hansard page number 36 (31/10/05)

Senator FAULKNER—Has this committee got a charter or terms of reference?

Ms Penfold—Yes, it does. I do not know whether they are letters patent, but there is a 1911 Gazette notice, I think, which I could certainly get for you.

Answer:

On 22 December 1911 the Executive Council established the Historic Memorials Committee and its charter and terms of reference (see Attachment A). The Committee's establishment was announced in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette on 30 December 1911
(Attachment B).

PROCLAMATION

Commonwealth of Australia to wit,

DENMAN,
Governor-General.

By His Excellency the Right Honorable Thomas, Baron Denman, a Member of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Knight Commander of the Royal Victorian Order, Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of the Commonwealth of Australia.

WHEREAS by the Quarantine Act 1908, it is enacted that the Governor-General may, by proclamation, appoint places on land or sea to be Quarantine Stations for the performance of quarantine by vessels, persons, goods, animals, or plants:

C.17356.

And whereas it is desirable to appoint a Quarantine Station for the quarantine of horses imported into the State of New South Wales:

Now therefore I, Thomas, Baron Denman, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, do hereby appoint Mr. C. W. Perry's property at Ingleburn, consisting of about 850 acres, known as Leppington, situated within the municipal district of Campbelltown, New South Wales, about 30 miles from Sydney and 2½ miles from the Ingleburn Railway Station, southern line, and bounded by Denham Court-lane, the main Camden-road, the Minto-road, and the properties of Messrs. Thomas and Thompson, to be a quarantine station for the performance of quarantine by horses imported into the State of New South Wales.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth this 22nd day of December, One thousand nine hundred and eleven, and in the second year of His Majesty's reign.

By His Excellency's Command,
(t.s.) FRANK G. TUDOR,
Minister of State for Trade and Customs.

GOD SAVE THE KING!
