Senator Fierravanti-Wells asked:

Further to the answer provided to F52 on 17 July 2008, please provide the same details for all federal electorates.

Answer:

Table 1 attached sets out the number of people who were added to and deleted from the rolls by division in the period between the return of the writ for the 2004 federal election and the announcement of the 2007 federal election (12 November 2004 to 13 October 2007 inclusive).

It should be noted that additions include new enrolments, re-enrolments, and people transferring into the division from another division. Deletions include deaths, removal by objection on the grounds of non-residence, and people transferring out of the division to another division.

Table 2 attached sets out the number of people who were deleted from the rolls by division in the period after the preparation of the certified lists for the 2007 federal election to the return of the writ for the election on 21 December 2007 (inclusive).
