Question:

Has the membership of the Asian Cup Local Organising Committee been finalised?

If not, when will it be finalised?

If so, what is the membership of the committee, specifically, who is representing the Australian Government on the committee?

Answer:

Discussions on the establishment and membership of the Asian Cup Local Organising Committee (LOC) are ongoing between all stakeholders.

It is expected that the final makeup of the LOC will be finalized within the coming months.

The Australian Government and participating states will have a strong role on the LOC, including the opportunity to appoint board members and observers.
