IMMIGRATION AND MULTICULTURAL AND INDIGENOUS AFFAIRS PORTFOLIO

(22) Output 1.2: Refugee and Humanitarian Entry and Stay

Senator Bartlett asked:

Please supply statistics on the number of persons who have sought asylum in Australia between 1999 and the present so as to show:

- (a) The acceptance/rejection rates of individual DIMIA officers charged with the processing of refugee claims by individuals from the top 10 countries of asylum, sorted by processing date and nationality of claimants.
- (b) The rate at which failed refugee claims were appealed to the RRT (by nationality, date and location of asylum seeker in or out of detention) the acceptance/rejection rates of RRT officers charged with the processing of the refugee appeals by year of hearing and nationality.

Answer:

- (a) The Department is unable to provide the reports requested due to systems and data limitations.
- (b) Tables showing the RRT review application take-up rate for all protection visa applications lodged from 1 July 1999 to 31 January 2005 by detainees and non-detainees are below.

For these tables the RRT take-up rate is the proportion of primary refusals where the client applied to the RRT expressed as a percentage. Nationalities where fewer than fifty applications were refused have been aggregated and the number of nationalities is shown in brackets. These have been aggregated because numbers are too small to provide reliable take-up rates.

In relation to the second component of the question, DIMIA has consulted the RRT which has furnished the attached report, 'RRT: Cases finalised between 1/07/99 and 28/02/05 by member, year finalised, country of applicant and outcome'.

The member acceptance/rejection rates have been provided in respect of each country of nationality. It should be noted that a case can include more than one applicant and that acceptance/rejection rates of members are dependent upon many factors. These factors include the variability of caseload complexity between countries allocated to members and within countries and changing country conditions over time. The RRT advises that it has not been possible without considerable resource effort to provide the requested information by year of hearing, although in the majority of cases the final hearing would have occurred during the same calendar year that the case was finalised.
