Senator Ludwig (L&C 21-22) asked:

In relation to questions taken on notice, of the total that were returned, what percentage would you say were returned after the return date? And when was the last batch of questions returned to the Committee.

Answer:

317 questions were taken on notice by the Department at the Supplementary Budget Estimates hearing on 1 November 2005. 88% of the answers to these questions on notice were returned to the Committee after the due date of 16 December 2005. The last batch of questions was provided to the Committee on 9 February 2006.
