Senator Ludwig asked:

Name change from DIMA to DIAC

In additional estimates hearing 12 February 2007 the Department indicated that required changes to signage nationally would be “around $20,000”.

- (a) Does this figure include name badges, banners, vehicles, vessels, facilities, decals, forms, shop fronts and all other associated required re-branding?

- (b) If not, what is the total expenditure required to change the branding/signage nationally.

Answer:

- (a) No, the figure of $20,000 related to signage on property only.
- (b) The total expenditure required to change the branding/signage nationally including IT is estimated to be $345,860.
