Question No. 79

Senator Hanson-Young asked the following question at the hearing on 23 February 2009:

What is the likely timeframe for a report from the Standing Committee of Attorneys-General into the harmonisation of anti-discrimination legislation?

The answer to the honourable senator's question is as follows:

The SCAG Officers Working Group expects to report to Ministers on progress on all stages of the harmonisation project later in 2009.
