Question No. 133

Senator Eggleston asked the following question at the hearing on 8 February 2010:

What is the status of each election commitment within the portfolio? Please identify which election commitments are slipping, noting:

- a. Why are they experiencing slippages
- b. What their revised implementation dates are, where relevant
- c. What the implications are of the slippage

The answer to the honourable senator's question is as follows:

Election commitment	Status
	Released . The White Paper was released on 23 February
Counter-Terrorism White Paper	2010.
Funding 500 extra AFP officers	In staged progress. Funds committed in 2008/9 Budget.
	Implementation is on track.
Conducting a Federal Audit of Police Capabilities	Delivered. The Federal audit of police capabilities (known as the Beale Review) "New Realities: National Policing in the 21st Century" was finalised in line with expected time frames. It was publicly released in December 2009 and implementation of recommendations is underway.
Joint Inter Agency Taskforce West (JIATF-W)	Alternative approach taken. The AFP has previously advised Government there is a strong relationship and unencumbered exchange of law enforcement intelligence with JIATF-West.
AFP recruitment and retention program	In progress. Significant programs are underway: Current commitments are on track for delivery. Progress has been made with early increases in number of Women in the AFP (eg all recruit courses now have at least 50% women); targeting recruitment programs which recruited rural and remote women as PSOs. A people strategy and workforce planning framework have been delivered;
	research targeting women and Indigenous Australians has been completed and findings put into effect.
