

SENATE STANDING COMMITTEE ON LEGAL AND CONSTITUTIONAL AFFAIRS
AUSTRALIAN LAW REFORM COMMISSION

Question No. 57

Senator Boyce asked the following question at the hearing on 14 February 2012:

Section 27 of the Australian Law Reform Commission Act provides for the establishment of a management advisory committee to advise the President on matters that are relevant to the proper discharge of the Commissions functions, has any such committee been formed?

- a) Who are the members?
- b) How are they selected?
- c) How many times has the committee met?

The answer to the honourable senator's question is as follows:

No management advisory committee has been established.
