

SENATE STANDING COMMITTEE ON LEGAL AND CONSTITUTIONAL AFFAIRS

ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT

Portfolio

Question No. 79

Senator Humphries asked the following question at the hearing on 14 February 2012:

Discretionary Grants

For this financial year to date:

1. Could the Department provide a list of all discretionary grants, including ad hoc and one-off grants for this financial year to date? Please provide details of the recipients, the intended use of the grants and what locations have benefited from the grants.
2. Has the Department complied with interim requirements relating to the publication of discretionary grants?

The answer to the honourable senator's question is as follows:

See tables below

Attorney Generals Department

1.	Please see list below of grants for the financial year to date.
2.	Yes. The Department is required to publish grants information on its website no later than seven working days after the funding agreement for the grant takes effect as set out in the Commonwealth Grant Guidelines (CGG). The Department co-ordinates a twice weekly grant reviews to identify new grants and publish them in compliance with the requirements CGG. The Department performs periodic grants testing of the Department's central grants listing to confirm the completeness and accuracy of information entered. The Department has also complied with grants-related reporting requirements established by the parliament including annual reports, Senate Order 95, and other ad hoc reporting.

Building Community Resilience	North Melbourne Football Club	$102,300	CONNECT @ The Huddle will target 15-25 year olds to connect young people with learning, recreation, employment opportunities, technology, community and each other. The project will support young people to develop their own arguments and messages to challenge and contest extremist ideologies through ongoing dialogue. Community leaders, role models, peers, academics, and elite professional sports people will be involved in elaborating and delivering messages through the CONNECT program to enhance individual identity and a sense of community belonging, reduce social isolation and create resilient leaders among young people to be better equipped to	Melbourne	VIC contest extremist messages and violent radicalism.

Building Community Resilience	Pace e Bene	$88,957	Stand By Me is a specially designed mentoring program for disengaged 12-18 year old refugee and new arrivals. Build on existing and successful YMCA Youth Mentoring Program and is a logical extension of that model. Incorporates the impact of one-on-one mentoring with the aim of building lasting, important friendships. Measurable outcomes include; improved self-esteem, career development, options for the future, improved relationships at home and better attitude and attendance in school.	Melbourne	VIC

Building Community Resilience	City of Darebin	$110,000	The program will build community connections and engagement between Darebin's Muslim community and the broader Darebin community, and will build the Omar bin Al - Kattab Mosque's capacity to manage community relations to develop and implement strategies that prevent the development of risky extremist views which can threaten community cohesion. The project will involve youth from the Muslim community to run team building activities with a focus on encouraging them to be more trusting of one another and encourage a positive and connection with the wider community.	Preston	VIC
-------------------------------	-----------------	-----------	---	---------	-----

Building Community Resilience	Youth Development Australia	$220,000	An amount of $200,000 (exclusive of GST) will be provided to bring together four groups between 8-10 young people, from marginalised and disadvantaged culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) backgrounds and encourages them to work together to produce multimedia works centred around the ideas of tolerance, understanding, community and culturally sharing. Through the semester long project, young people will be mentored by multimedia practitioners, who will facilitate intensive workshops, giving the young people the skills they need to create their multimedia pieces. The final stages of the project participants will be offered training in presentation skills and will be made available to schools and community groups to talk about their involvement and present their documentary.
