Senator Lundy (L&C 75) asked:

Check who publicly named Pangaea.

Answer:

Our research indicates that the first time Pangaea Restaurant was named in public was on 16 March 2006 in an article published in The Australian newspaper about allegations of exploitation and kidnapping of a Filipino worker.

John Harrington, Managing Director of Pangaea Restaurant, was named by Senator Lundy in Parliament on 8 February 2006 as the “original employer of the 17 Filipino workers”, but the restaurant was not named.
