The committee notes that the Standing Orders require the committee to set dates for the lodgement of any written answers or additional information and for supplementary hearings. The committee resolved that the deadline for the submission of written answers and additional information by both portfolios would be close of business on Friday, 14 July 2006.

Report

In this report, the committee draws the attention of the Senate to issues and concerns raised in the four days of hearings. These included:

- The committee questioned officers from DIMA extensively on a number of issues relating to the subclass 457 visa, including the number of visas issued; alleged breaches of these visas and investigations into complaints received by the Department.
- Officers of the Attorney-General Department were questioned on a number of issues including the establishment of a judicial commission, the opening and operation of the family relationship centres and the costs associated with public awareness campaigns for these centres. The committee also sought information on petrol sniffing, the national identity security strategy and the possible new extradition system.
- Both the AFP and ASIO were questioned on their role in the current development of the ASIC system (Aviation Security Identification Card).
- Officers of the ACC were asked by the committee questions relating to a range of new initiatives that were included in the budget.
