

QUESTION TAKEN ON NOTICE

BUDGET ESTIMATES HEARING: 21 May 2007

IMMIGRATION AND CITIZENSHIP PORTFOLIO

(13) Output : Internal Product

Senator Crossin (L&CA 25) asked:

What kinds of positions are in the National Communications Branch?

Answer:

The majority of positions are filled by public affairs officers with experience in media liaison and issues management, internal and strategic communication planning, campaign and advertising and publications, digital video, audio and photography. There is also a small team of administrative officers responsible for the administrative functions of the branch.