

SENATE STANDING COMMITTEE ON LEGAL AND CONSTITUTIONAL AFFAIRS
FEDERAL COURT OF AUSTRALIA

Question No. 22

Senator Abetz asked the following question at the hearing on 24 May 2010:

Did the advertisement of the Hobart District Registrar position highlight the remuneration that was available? Please provide a copy of this advertisement.

The answer to the honourable senator's question is as follows:

The advertisement for the Hobart District Registrar position was placed in the Hobart Mercury, Launceston Examiner and Burnie Advocate and the APS Employment Gazette. The advertisement placed in the newspapers did not highlight the remuneration that was available. The advertisement placed in the APS Employment Gazette included the base salary. Copies of the advertisements are attached.

Job Description

Duties

A challenging opportunity exists for an experienced lawyer to provide legal services on behalf of the Federal Court of Australia, which will include the coordination and overseeing of the day-to-day work of the staff of the Tasmania Registry.

The court seeks an experienced lawyer to conduct hearings, case management conferences and mediations in a broad range of matters before the Court including: Insolvency; Human Rights; Bankruptcy; Corporations Law; Trade Practices and Intellectual Property. The successful applicant will ideally have highly developed conceptual and analytical skills and relevant experience in the conduct of litigation, case management and alternative dispute resolution including mediation and negotiation.

In addition, the position will be required to assume some managerial responsibility for Administrative Appeals Tribunal functions.

As the position exercises a range of statutory and judge directed and delegated functions, applicants must be legally qualified, eligible to practice and able to demonstrate a well-developed capacity for legal decision making.

An information package including role description and selection criteria is available at www.fedcourt.gov.au following the links from 'What's New'. Further information about the position can be obtained from Andrea Jarratt on 03 8600 3504.

Applicants must address the selection criteria for the position in their application and provide a current résumé. Applications should be addressed for the attention of Sia Lagos and emailed to: vicadmin@fedcourt.gov.au
