

QUESTION TAKEN ON NOTICE

BUDGET ESTIMATES HEARING: 26 MAY 2010

IMMIGRATION AND CITIZENSHIP PORTFOLIO

(33) Program 6.1: Multicultural and Citizenship Services

Senator Humphries (L&CA 68) asked:

Excluding humanitarian applicants and those people without another citizenship to turn to, in the last year how many cases were there where a person was deprived of Australian citizenship?

Answer:

There have not been any cases where a person has had their Australian citizenship revoked during the last 12 months.