

QUESTION TAKEN ON NOTICE

BUDGET ESTIMATES HEARING: 21-22 MAY 2012

IMMIGRATION AND CITIZENSHIP PORTFOLIO

(BE12/0307) Program 3.1: Border Management

Senator Xenophon (L&CA 51) asked:

If a flight is tagged as an international flight but that flight either departs from or arrives at a domestic terminal within Australia, would that be a factor for the department to look behind the flight being designated an international flight by the airline?

Answer:

The Department does not have a role in determining whether a flight is classified as international or domestic.