Senator Lundy (L&CA 64) asked:

Can you provide the committee with a reference to any awards that would be relevant in the ICT sector. I certainly appreciate your point that it has long had a tradition to be contract based, but can you provide that?

Answer:

A frequently referenced award for ICT workers is the (Federal) Information Technology Industry (Professional Employees) Award 2001 (varied on 16 August 2005) to which the Australian Industry Group is a party.
