Question No. 43

Senator Brandis asked the following question at the hearing on 20 October 2008:

Provide the Committee with the details on what, if any, mode of public or stakeholder consultation is envisaged regarding proposals surrounding the accessibility and effectiveness of the federal justice system.

The answer to the honourable senator's question is as follows:

The details of the mode of formal consultation on the proposals, including with the judiciary and legal profession, are yet to be determined by Government.

However, informal consultation with key stakeholders is already occurring at officer level.
