31		One consultancy is not being included in the response to this question on notice. Release of the particulars of this consultancy is not in the public interest because it would be contrary to the longstanding convention that strict confidentiality attaches to the deliberations of Cabinet.
32		One contract which is not being included in the response to this question on notice relates to the engagement of an independent witness for the purposes of Australia's international legal action against Japan. If such figures were revealed, it would risk identifying our legal strategy and tactics. The release of this information would be contrary to Australia's national interest in succeeding in this case.
