

Creative Young Stars Programme

Note: Data as at 2 October 2013

Overview

- The Creative Young Stars programme makes grants available for Federal Members of Parliament (MPs) to provide financial assistance for students and young people (aged 25 years and under) to participate in artistic, cultural, academic or community based activities, events or training.
- Round One of Creative Young Stars applications opened on Saturday 1 June 2013 and closed Wednesday 26 June 2013.

Funding

- The total administered funding for the Creative Young Stars program is $7.550 million, split across two financial years 2013-14 and 2014-15.
- Each electorate is allocated $23,500 per financial year to provide 23 grants of $500 for individuals and four grants of $3000 for groups, making 4,050 grants per financial year (split over two funding rounds per financial year, making four rounds in total).
- A total of $841,500 was awarded in grants under Round One.
