(SE13/0417) PROGRAM – 2.1: Refugee and Humanitarian Assistance

Senator the Hon Kim Carr (L&CA 57) asked:

Senator KIM CARR: How many are you expecting to be from Malaysia and Indonesia this year, 2013-14? Is that figure likely to change?

Ms Larkins: The broad allocations within the government's 11,000 are still being determined and considered by government. So we do not have that finalised yet.

Senator KIM CARR: When will you have that?

Ms Larkins: We expect to have that within the coming weeks. We are working to an—

Senator KIM CARR: When that is provided, will you provide that to the committee?

Ms Larkins: We can, yes.

Answer:

The Department expects to resettle around 1000 people out of Malaysia and around 600 people out of Indonesia in 2013–14.
