>To Joint Standing Committee On Trade
>It is with some consternation that I note that there is so little time for >public submissions to be made regarding Australias relationship with the >World Trade Organisation.

>WTO decisions only reflect the wishes and agendas of the >TNC'S(Transnational Corporations at the expense of a countrys businesses >and their people.
>I am really concerned in particular with the MAI(Multilateral Agreement on >Investment) now being re-negotiated under the new name of DFAT.
>The whole of society is affected by trade decisions so all trade >negotiations should be conducted in public with JSCOT(Joint Standing >Committee On Trade)given a permanent reference to scrutinise >trade/investment negotiations.
