Dear Secretary,

I believe that women trafficked to Australia must be given support. They need their own special visa. They should not be incarcerated in Immigration centres such as Villawood or Maribyrnong.

They, and trafficked children are victims of crime carried out in Australia, and repatriation should be made in Australia. Women and children should receive proper support, and Australian govts (state and federal) must support specialist NGOs to do this.

Yours sincerely,
(Miss) Shirley
