

Additional information provided by the Australian Housing and Urban Research Institute (AHURI)

The Australian Housing and Urban Research Institute (AHURI) has undertaken a considerable body of research on social housing issues. Many of the Reports published on AHURI's website relate to these issues and there are brief summaries in the form of Research and Policy Bulletins for each report which may be accessed at: http://www.ahuri.edu.au/themes/housing_policies_programs/raps1.html

Also provided for information is the following list of key AHURI publications relating to this area which may be accessed by clicking on the project number.
