

To whom it may concern

I am very much in support of the truth in labelling - palm oil bill. I find it incredibly difficult to know which products to chose at the supermarket as I want to avoid purchasing any products with palm oil for environmental reasons. There are many species in grave danger of extinction because of palm oil plantations replacing their natural habitat. This bill can not be passed quickly enough in my view.

Regards

Amber Howard