

I support this bill purely on a personal level. I would like to be able to make choices on the products I buy based on their palm oil content. I care about the animals that this industry affects and would like to ensure that I am not contributing to the success manufacturing companies who use palm oil.

Greta M Young