

I support the mandatory labeling of palm oil in any products that contain it or its derivatives.

I believe that the public has a right to know and make our own choice.

With regards,

Steve Barton