

To Whom it May Concern

I support the bill to label palm oil in Australian food products.

I would like to have the legislation changed so that palm oil is labeled in Australia, then I can then have the choice to buy products that do not contain this oil. I am extremely concerned that animals like Orang-Utans and Tigers are affected by my unknowingly purchasing products that contain palm oil.

Regards

Donna Livermore