

Food Standards Amendment (Truth in Labelling – Palm Oil) Bill 2009

Foods with palm oil need to be labeled properly. It is unfair that people are being tricked into killing innocent orangutans and contributing to deforestation which is hurting the environment and taking away clean air. I am an environmental science professor as well as an intern for the Atlanta Zoo working directly with orangutans.

Jessy Bahn