

I wish to make a submission for the mandatory labelling of palm oil to the Food Standards Amendment (Truth in Labelling - Palm Oil) Bill 2009.

I am deeply concerned about the devastating effects of rainforest destruction and the subsequent loss of the orangutan population (and other animals) in Malaysia and Indonesia for the production of palm oil. As a consumer I believe I have a right to know which products contain palm oil.

Yours faithfully
Andrea Honchin