

I support the mandatory labelling of all items containing palm oil.
I believe this is essential of open and transparent information on the ingredients of any product. In this case the growing and harvesting of palm oil is both causing deforestation of critical rain forest and is also causing a habitat problem for orang utans.

Please be a responsible government.

Many ingredients require compulsory labelling.

Please add Palm Oil to this list

Yours sincerely

Joan Cashion

Dr Joan Cashion