

Dear Senator Moore

Re: Inquiry into Health Legislation Amendment (Midwives and Nurse Practitioners) Bill 2009 and two related Bills

I write to express my concern about the above bills. I understand that these bills will enable Medicare funding, access to the Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme and professional indemnity premium support for midwives providing care for women to give birth in hospital.

Medicare funding for midwifery care is long overdue. It is not acceptable however to exclude homebirth from this funding and indemnity arrangement. By doing this Australia is totally out of step with nations such as the United Kingdom, Canada, The Netherlands and New Zealand.

These nations support the rights of women to choose homebirth and fund a registered midwife through their national health scheme. In New Zealand and the U.K women have a legislative right to choose homebirth.

The intersection of this legislation with the national registration and accreditation of health professionals will prevent homebirth midwives from registering. I believe this to be an unintended consequence and ask that you take steps to include homebirth within the Health Legislation Amendment (Midwives and Nurse Practitioners) and related Bills.

I support a system where all consumers are treated equally, with the same access to funding and the same insurance protection.

I have birthed 3 children in Perth - the first in hospital and the last two at home, under a state-funded scheme. My hospital experience resulted in labour intervention (where the pain relief was unsuccessful), a stay in the Princess Margaret Hospital for children, significant difficulties breastfeeding (requiring assistance through the breastfeeding centre) and post-natal depression. My homebirths were amazing, amazing experiences where I was attended by experienced, knowledgeable, caring midwives. The homebirthing programme is the only one which provides 1-on-1 care for pregnancy, labour and 6 weeks post natively ... by the same midwife. Women will be at a severe disadvantage in being denied this choice.

Yours sincerely
