

I would like to voice my opinion that it is essential that women retain the right to choose homebirth, with a midwife in private practice. I would ask that you seriously reconsider passing any legislation that will make this any harder for women, their families and midwives, including the financial viability of continuing to offer this kind of care for midwives.

I sincerely appreciate your time.

Kind regards,

Angel Goodson-Adams