

I am writing about my concerns that private midwives will not be able to attend homebirths in the near future.

I do not agree that this option of supported homebirth will be removed to women and their families.

I am a young mother of one and intend on expanding my family. I support women's choices of birthing options to include homebirth.

Thank you for your consideration,

Lesley Stein