

I am a private citizen, a mother, teacher, historian and writer, not apart of the birth professions. I chose to have my children in a public hospital but am very deeply concerned that the ability for families to choose to birth at home with the help of a midwife is currently under threat. This seems to me a basic human right and a basic right for women. Something has to be done to fix this situation, please!

Lucy Chesser