

The Secretary
Senate Select Committee on Climate Policy

By locking us in to a low target means anything I as an individual do to lower my own, my households, my communities or my businesses emissions will be transferred to those who make no effort at all. This is appalling!

I should be able to make a difference if I so choose.

Regards
Malcolm Teggins